
Cable with London.
The international chess match by cable

tion on April 21 and 22, promises to be a hard battle for supremacy. The British require only another victory to complete the necessary series of three straight to take permanent possession of the cup.

For that reason the City of London Chamber of Commerce is making determined efforts to add

The Americans will be in much better shape, and the committee is charged with the duty of increasing their ability to break the record of the British victories. F. J. MacGregor, the United States champion, has arrived in Paris, after the San Sebastian congress. He is in his best form and will play his probable game across the board in London.

F. B. Barry, of Boston, is in training, and F. P. Hodges, this city, is in the line. In the matches, he will be met by R. T. Black, Brooklyn, who has the advantage of participation in the national masters' tournament held in New York, and G. J. Schwietzer, who is now playing in the annual championship tournament of the Brooklyn Chess Club. H. G. Volpert, Philadelphia, G. H. Rosenfeld, of New Orleans, and E. B. Merz, of New York, are also expected to appear.

The vacancy created by the retirement of H. Rosenfeld, of New York, will be filled by the committee.

The record of the annual series to date is in favor of the Americans, who have won six matches, lost five and drawn one.
